National Leader in Food and Beverage Containers Looks to Reduce Operating Costs

Dunn, NC – One the Nation's largest food and beverage container manufacturers sent out bids for cost reductions. Four chemical companies including EnviroServe were contacted and offered production trials and pricing proposals.

EnviroServe was the last company to test and present pricing information. They were the only company that could both reduce chemical costs in the spray washer without having an impact on their current production quality.

Testing of the can forming lubricant will begin as soon as production allows.
